Dear Parents and carers,

Are we allowed to say Spring is here? The signs are certainly showing and we've enjoyed seeing some lambs in the fields and flowers starting to grow.

We've had lots of exciting things happening in school since we returned from the half term break:

Year 6 have worked with the artist in residence and members of the local community on a joint art project at Heron Corn Mill; Year 4 have visited Hadrian's Wall and Vindolanda, and were fortunate to have the best weather for their day out. Children in Key Stage Two have worked with Conductive Music, learning to compose music pieces, using a variety of tools and technology.

This week, we will have a speaker from the Anne Frank Trust coming to work with our Year 6 children and of course, Thursday is World Book Day with all the fun that brings.

You will also hear about a fantastic event later this week but I'm sworn to secrecy so I'll just have to keep you in suspense! Welcome back to Part 2 of the Spring term.

Thank you and best wishes,

Paul Macfarlane

World Book Day 'Bedtime Story' Theme

This year, our theme is 'bedtime stories'; please feel free to send pupils in their cosiest onesies or pyjamas, with slippers for indoors, bringing a teddy and their favourite book!

Alternatively, children are more than welcome to come in costume as a character from a book, or in school uniform if they don't wish to dress up.

(The children will still be outside at lunch and playtime so please bring warm coats and school shoes – thank you)

PTA World Book Day Giveaway event!!

Thank you so much to everyone who has donated such lovely books for this event!
We have been inundated!

As part of our World Book Day celebrations, on Thursday, all the children will get the chance to visit the 'Book Shop' and choose a book for free!

Any books that are left over will be used to replenish our school library 😊
